

A significance of the fasting in the Ramadan

by Adam Yoshioka Shunsuke

My dear brothers in Islam !

Assalam Alaikum wa Rahmatullah wa Barakatuh.

It is a great honor for me to be invited to this meeting as a brother in Islam.

I was accepted as a muslim, at the Islamic Center Japan, on the 23rd Dec. '83.

So 8 years, happy 8 years have passed since I became a muslim.

I have experienced the Ramadan eight times here in Japan. There have been a lot of difficulties in it. Without a piece of bread, I was weak. Without a cup of water, I was tired. Through those difficulties I have been forced to realize that a human being is constantly, continuously, and incessantly sustained by Allah.

Thanks to the Ramadan, not only my mind, but also my body itself recognize such a human situation and the relationship between Allah and a human being.

My dear brothers in Islam !

Assalam Alaikum wa Rahmatullah wa Barakatuh.

It is a great honor for me to be invited to this celebration as a brother in Islam.

I was accepted as a muslim, at the Islamic Center-Japan, on the 23rd Dec. '83.

So 8 years, happy 8 years have passed since I became a muslim.

I studied Quran, like an ant carries a burden on his back. But it was a great joy for me.

I study Quran, like a donkey(a horse) carries a burden on his back. But it is a greater joy.

I will study Quran, like an elephant carries a burden on his back. But it will be the greatest joy for me.

Thank you and Assalam Alaikum ! (シュクリヤン !)
